ALMA MATER

OH, KENSTON HIGH FOREVER,

OUR ALMA MATER DEAR.

WE STRIVE TO BRING THEE GLORY,

THY NAME WE LOVE TO HEAR.

TO HONOR AND TO CHERISH,

WITH TRUTH AND HONEST BE.

OH; KENSTON HIGH FOREVER,

OUR PRAISES TO THEE.

KENSTON ON THE MARCH . . .

Every year the Kenstonian Staff strives to produce a bigger and better yearbook for you. This year's staff was no exception as they gathered photographs, sought advertisements, and wrote suitable materials, all in the shadow of that incessant deadline. A yearbook, however, should be more than just a bound collection of advertisements, photographs, and writing. In it should be captured the spirit of young people, who in combination with their outstanding faculty and administration, make our school what it is. In this yearbook we hope that you will find the greatness that exists inside the walls of our school captured inside the pages of this 1963 KENSTONIAN.

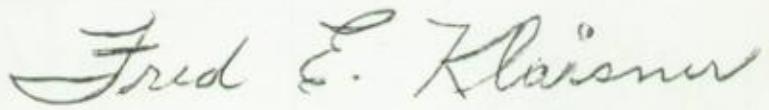

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

May I take this opportunity to extend greetings to all the students of Kenston High School. To the Seniors particularly, I would like to extend my best wishes for your future undertakings, whatever they may be.

A Yearbook represents the efforts of a few members of the school to capture and preserve for all of us the many and varied activities of the school. I hope you will enjoy this opportunity to reflect upon the past school year. Perhaps you may someday come to treasure this yearbook, since it offers you an opportunity to relive many happy and enjoyable experiences at Kenston High School.

Again, my best wishes to you always.

Fred E. Klaisner
Principal

The Kenstonian is a pictorial depiction of life at Kenston High School. Congratulations are due the staff and faculty advisors for an excellent production. You will enjoy paging through this annual for many years to come.

The caliber of our high school has been determined by your self-discipline and devotion to the school tasks. I commend each student who has developed fully according to his potential. Life in the Space Age is complex and it demands quality, moral fibers, and competencies. Your record at Kenston is a good indication of your future effectiveness as a citizen, and I trust that the record is one of which you are mighty proud.

HEAD CUSTODIAN - Mr. Crowley

An integral part of an education are those who care for our physical bodies by preparing our dinners, and those who see that the physical plant is clean and cheerful.

Kenston's cooks and custodians do these well. Thank you.

"There she is!"

"Is that all?"

Careful, now, Danny!

A penny for "her" thoughts.

"Clean, isn't it?"

"And in my hands . . . "

"Isn't this exciting!"

"This casserole's burning my fingers!"

"I'm still smiling."

The thinker is planning.

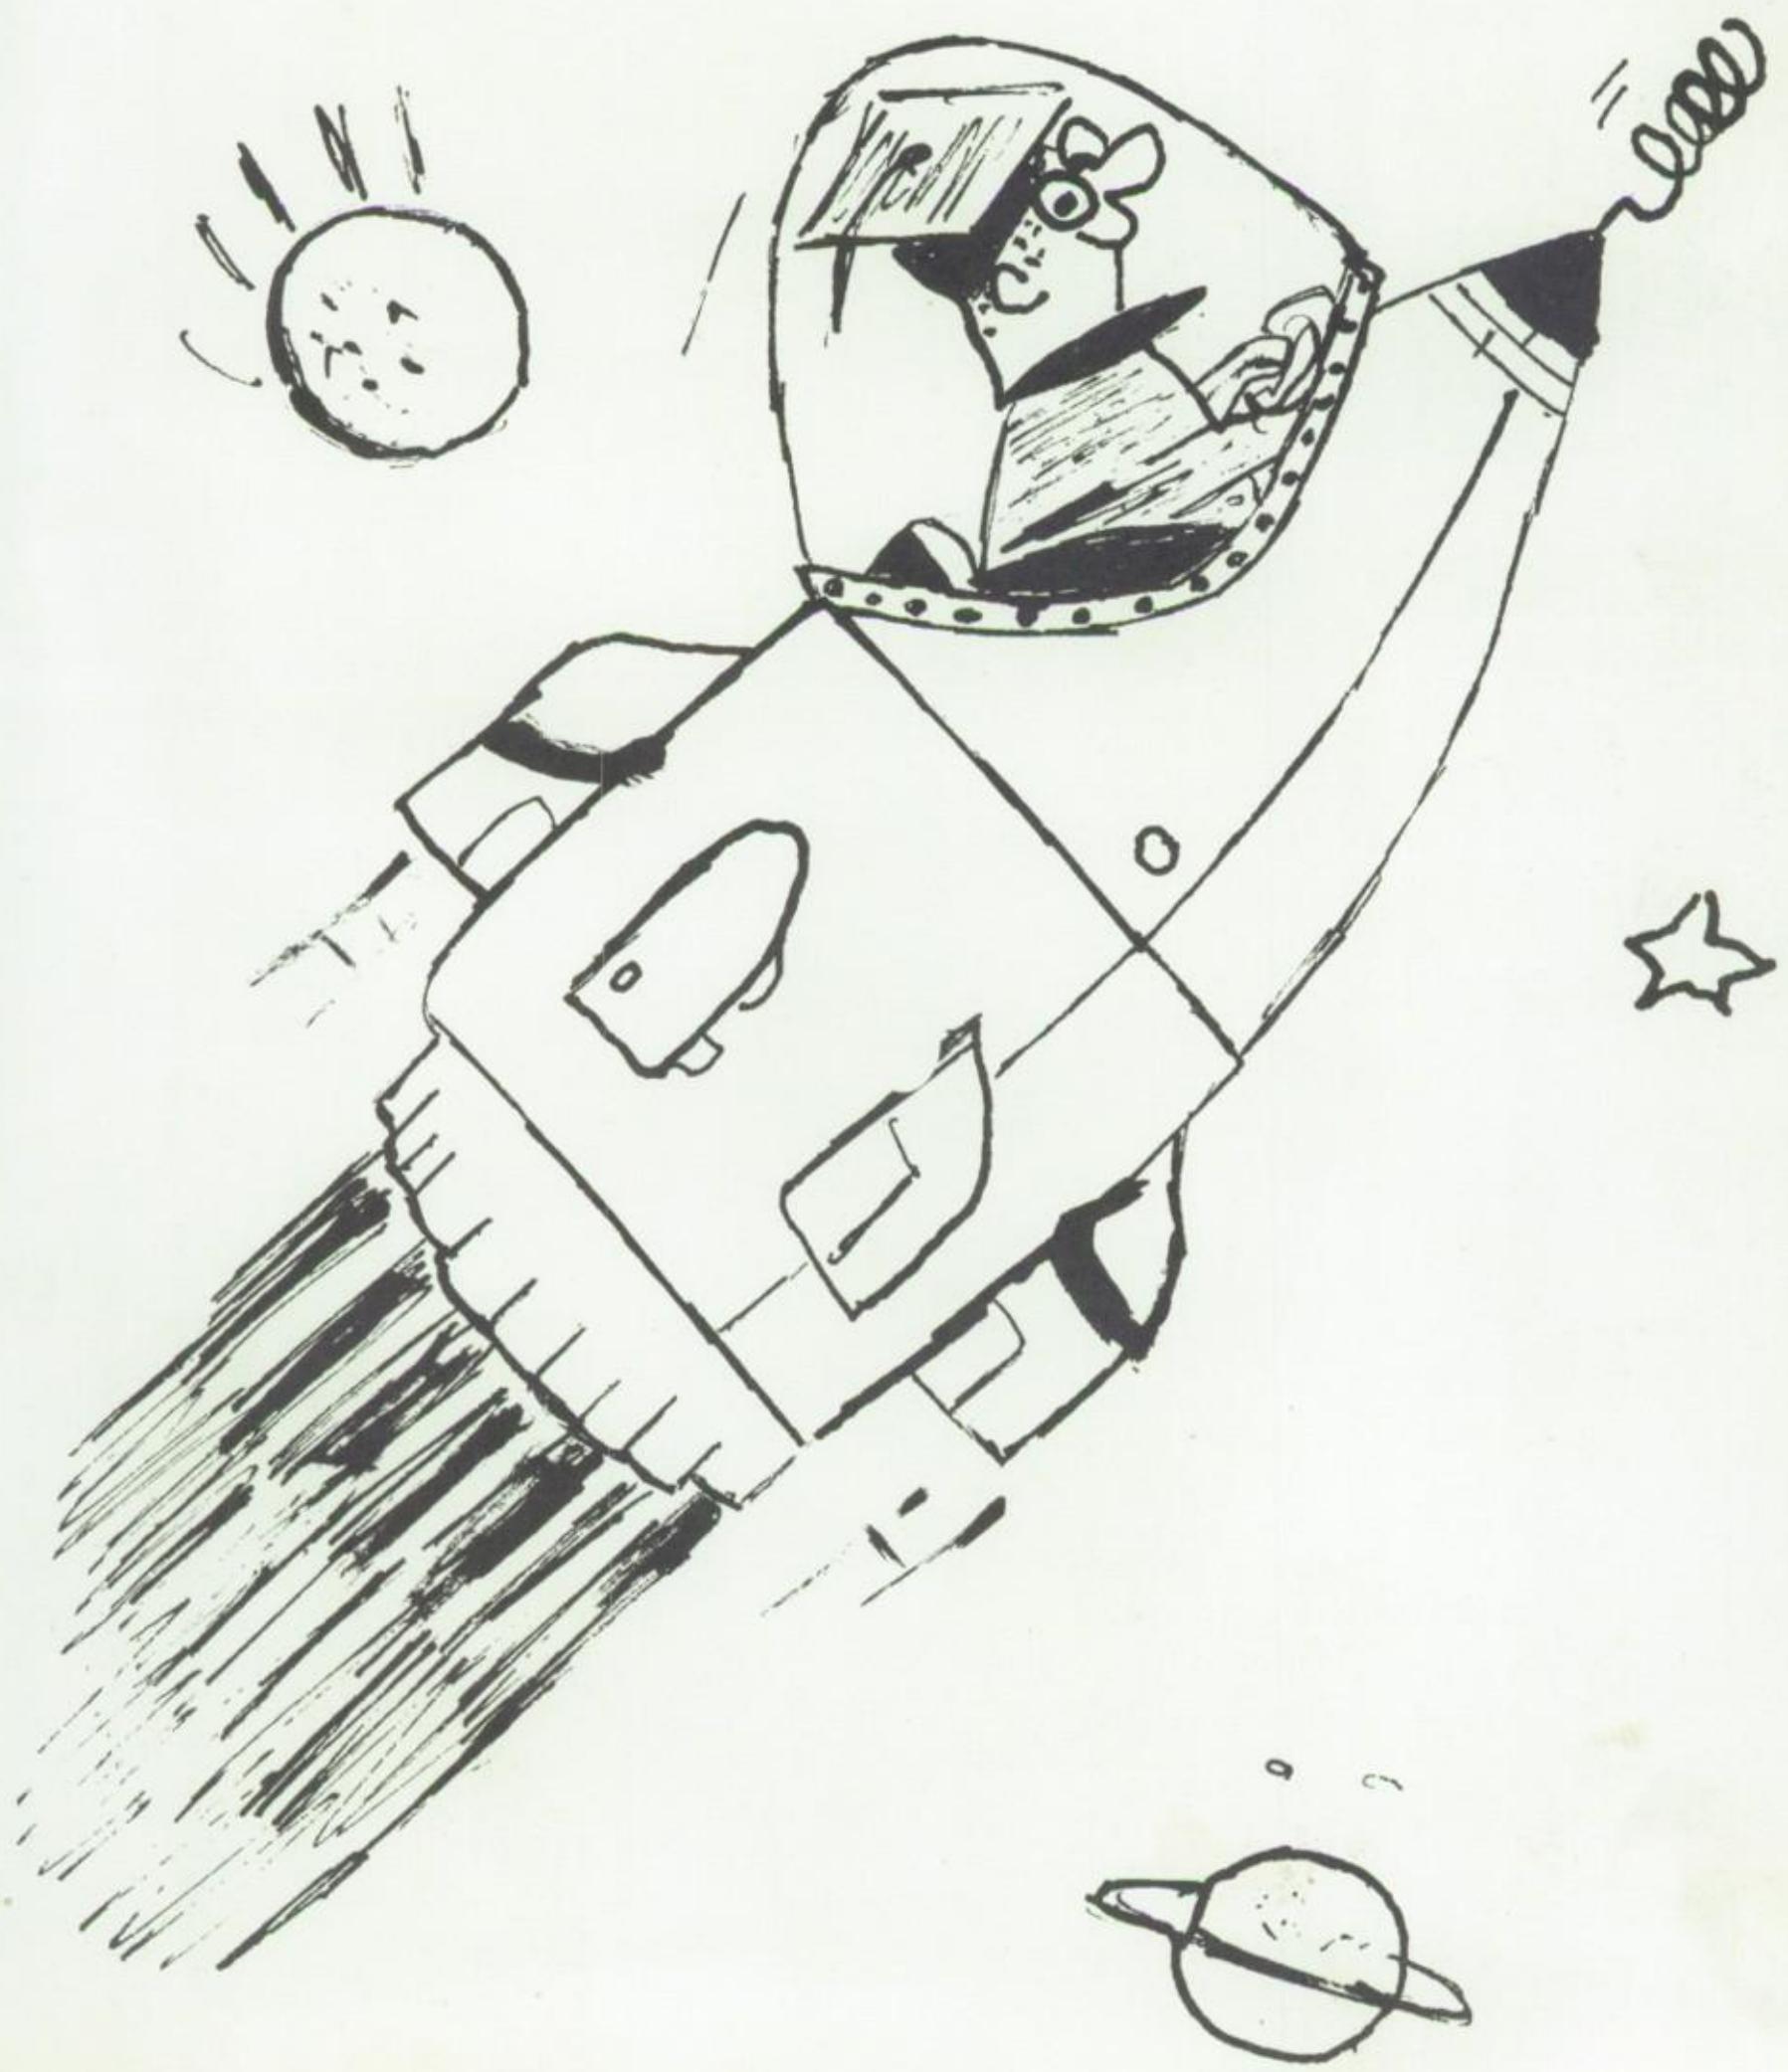

"Aw, what's a few feet?"

"Watch out for that pin!"

The senior class, under the guidance of its advisors, has risen from its eighth grade ranks to its present position with progress that has been steady and fruitful for most. These students have, we advisors hope, nurtured and developed into citizens ready to take up the challenge of the space age. Our hopes go with each. Good luck to each of you.

The many activities through the past five years--candy sales, Sweetheart Dance, Homecoming, Junior Prom, Senior Prom, and Commencement--have helped to make new friendships and strengthened old ones by working together, playing together, and most of all learning together. Each small task, each committee or class meeting has played an important part in making graduation and adulthood a reality.

One minute before the bell!

Hey, not yet!

One too many again!

Ooooh! Where does it hurt?

That "square deal" make-up sure fixed us this time!

The winner of the "dirty look" contest is . . .

Chilibean's at it again!

If coach sees me,
I'll be in for it. Wonder if he's here . . .

Won't you be my Valentine?

If this cowlick doesn't settle down . . .

One minute after the bell and English class!

It seems unusual to see some members of the Junior class studying. With all the plans in the making for the Junior-Senior Prom, the Seniors wonder when the Juniors do study. In this particular case, this Junior finds time to study during lunch period. Is this the only time our busy Juniors study? Rumors say that the Juniors are so smart the only time they do have to study is during lunch period. Deep meditation and concentration Juniors must possess!

Little did the yearbook staff of 1963 realize the work, headaches, and problems an organization of a yearbook creates. When the fifteen eager Kenstonian members met in the fall of 1962 with advisors, Mr. Hall and Miss Puscher, they decided that the 1963 Kenstonian was going to be the biggest and best yearbook ever produced. Through the guidance of the staff's advisors, the tedious jobs of selling advertisements and subscriptions to students, taking pictures, looking for candid shots, writing copy, and drawing layouts were made easier. Throughout the year, the ever-reminding deadline hung over the staff's heads.

The 1963 Yearbook never would have been finished if it hadn't been for the watchful eyes of the advisors. Through sweat, toil, and concentration, we, the Yearbook Staff are proud to present the 1963 Kenstonian. We hope that everyone will cherish this book as we will cherish our yearbook experiences.

KENSTONIAN STAFF takes a holiday . . .

Perhaps one of the hardest jobs is to produce a bimonthly school paper. The members of the Echo Staff and its advisor, Mrs. Rosemary Jividen, are no exceptions to the rule. Unlike a yearbook staff that usually has one editor-in-chief, a school newspaper staff must have many editors. Not only does the 1962-1963 Echo Staff of Kenston consist of layout editors, gossip editors, sports editors, etc., but typists and volunteer workers are needed to produce an interesting and acceptable paper. The Echo Staff at Kenston has done its job well in presenting to the student body and faculty up-to-date, accurate, and eye-catching news. A school is dead without activity; likewise, Kenston would be dead without its Echo Staff.

In January 1962 Y-Teens was founded at Kenston High School as an organization of girls to help further the relations among students. The duties of a Y-Teen member are numerous. For instance, a member must try to better himself and try to improve his school as best as he can. A member must respect the judgment of others and strive to further the fellowship of man. Although there is work involved for a member of Y-Teens, there is also fun. Swimming parties, slumber parties, and dances are the rewards for a Y-Teen member.

Here, at Kenston High, the Y-Teens have sponsored many twist hops after football and basketball games. Any girl from grades 9-12 may join Y-Teens. The Y-Teens at Kenston hope that in the future, they will become bigger and better. They hope to sponsor projects that will firmly establish their organization within the bonds of Kenston High School.

Everyone likes to see a good play, and ever since the founding of Kenston's Dramatics Club in 1961, under the leadership of Mr. Ferroni and Mr. Robinson as advisors, the quality of the school plays have been continuously improving. In 1961, under the leadership of Mr. Ferroni and Mr. Robinson, the club became a member of the National Thespian Society. Every year two plays are presented. This year 1962-1963 the two plays were Bull in a China Shop, given on November 16, 1962, and The Importance of Being Earnest, given on April 19, 1963.

HOMECOMING

The 1962 Kenston Homecoming turned out to be a success in spite of the "big snow" which caused the football game between Kenston and Newbury to be changed from Friday, the 26th of October, to the following Monday. Betty Seliga was crowned Homecoming Queen while the Bombers won their first Homecoming game in three years, 24 - 6. The Homecoming Dance was held on Saturday evening.

The football team runs onto the field before the game.

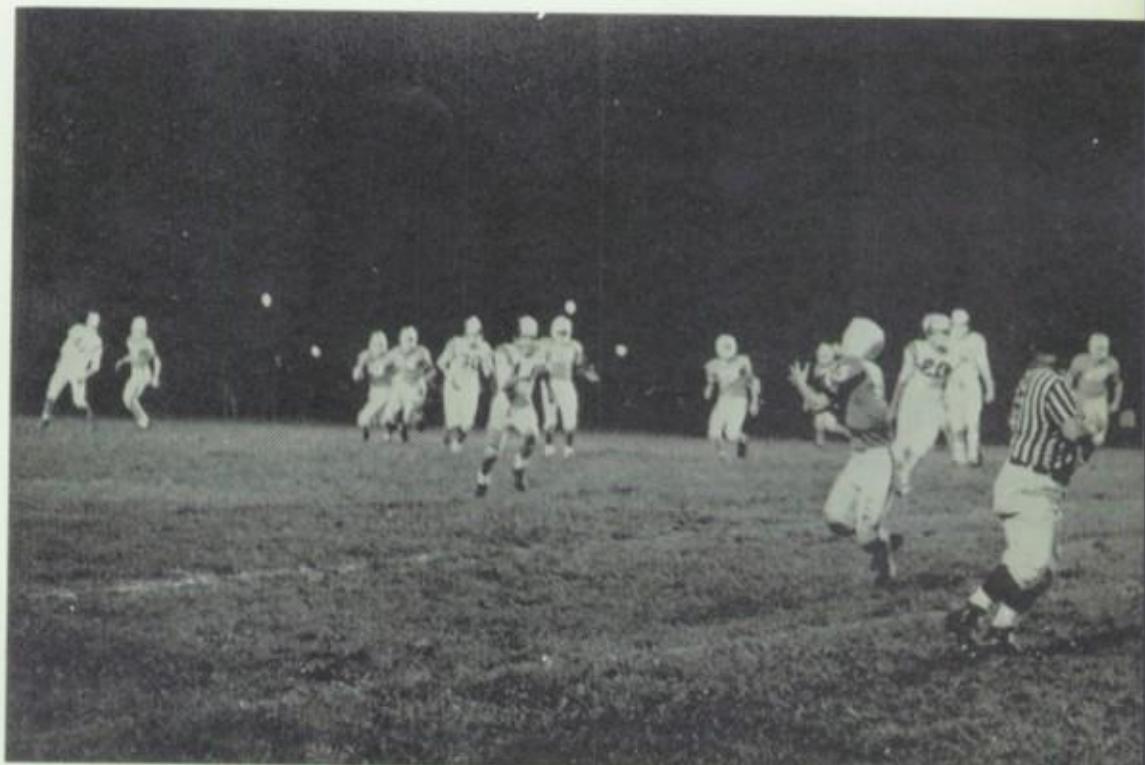

The team members huddle to cheer before they go out to play.

The winning float at the Homecoming game was built by the senior class. The rocket symbolizes the space age.

Kenston halfback Rod Stuart receives a pass from quarterback Jim Cross as the referee hurries to get out of the way.

Queen Betty Seliga sits on her throne with her senior attendants around her: Diane Rybicki, Patty Remias, Nancy Barnard, and Carol Dines.

The Bonfire pep rally was held the night before the Kenston - Chagrin game. The football team rode in on a fire engine.

Spectators crowd together at the sidelines trying to get a better view of the game.

Gary Stubbs is tackled by three players during the Chagrin Falls - Kenston football game. In this first game of the season, Kenston quarterback Dave Clemens suffered a broken leg. The Bombers lost to the powerful Chagrin team by a score of 12 - 0.

Kenston all-county halfback Jerry Taylor runs unmolested to the goal line in an unusual shot.

The West Geagua ballcarrier is tackled from behind as a surprised Jerry Nowak looks on. Kenston won the game 16 - 6.

Gary Stubbs leads the blocking for Jerry Taylor on an end sweep in the Cuyhoga Heights game. The final score was Kenston 12, Cuyhoga Heights 8.

Jerry Taylor is chased down the side lines to another one of his touchdowns.

JERRY TAYLOR

Everything started moving with the jumpball at the beginning of a J.V. game with Kirtland.

Jerry Taylor was completely off the floor when this picture of him was taken while he dribbled down the floor during the Newbury game. Kenston lost.

Jim Cross looked like he was going to swallow the ball after it came through the hoop. He didn't really.

Don Takacs gave his man a dirty look while he was shooting the basketball during the previews, which were held at Kenston.

Gary Stubbs drove in for the easy lay-up and two points during the previews. The gym was packed.

It seemed as if the referees never called fouls except when they were against Kenston. Here is absolute proof that at least one time they called a foul on the other team.

Paul Saiter pulled down a lot of rebounds during the year. Here's one that got away.

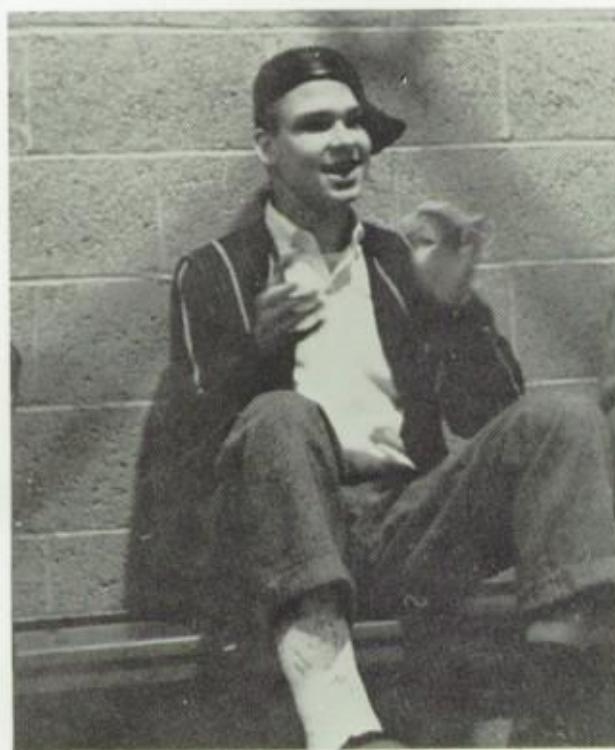

Paul Saiter shot and Jerry Taylor waited for the rebound in his ever-present red knee-guards.

Jerry Taylor put in two points on this shot. The action took place during the previews against Perry High School.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

"What this school needs is a little more team spirit."

The Junior Varsity Basketball team brought to light some promising young players, even though the team didn't enjoy a winning season. Several of the players will be pushing remaining varsity members next year as only one varsity letterman is returning.

WRESTLING

R. Squire, Mgr. BOTTOM ROW: J. Lock; M. Jaros; L. Scott; J. Rudney; P. Hohne;
D. McCune

This year's wrestling team gave a much better performance than the scores may indicate; the team usually forfeited two places each meet. Jerry Lock was voted the team's Most Valuable Player. The team is looking forward to a fine season next year, as only the captain, Norm Skala, will graduate.

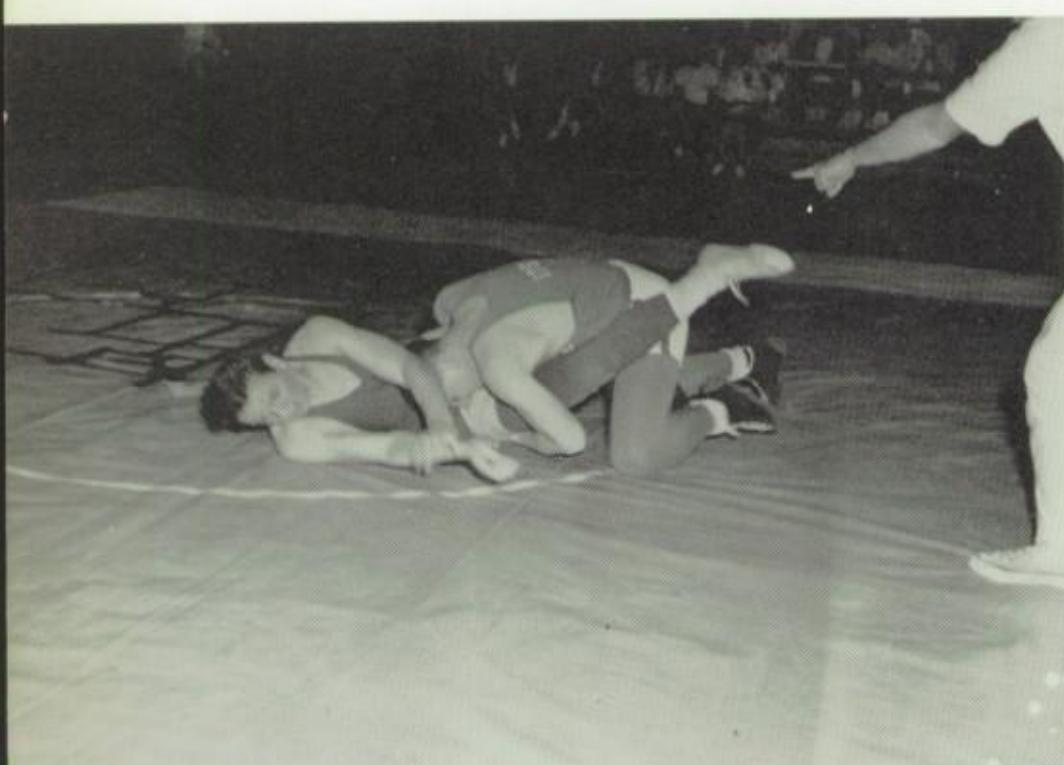

Scott's hand is raised - VICTORY!

The freshman basketball team continued its winning ways for the third year in a row this year. Larry Stubbs was the team's high-point man with a 14 point average per game. A few of these boys stand a chance to make the varsity team next year.

The baseball team ended up in second place in the G.L.A.C. this year with a league record of 3-2. The team had a casualty when Dave Rohler was hit by a pitch in an intersquad game. His jaw was broken. John King and Dick Schultz were the two pitchers.

Look 'em over, John, babe!

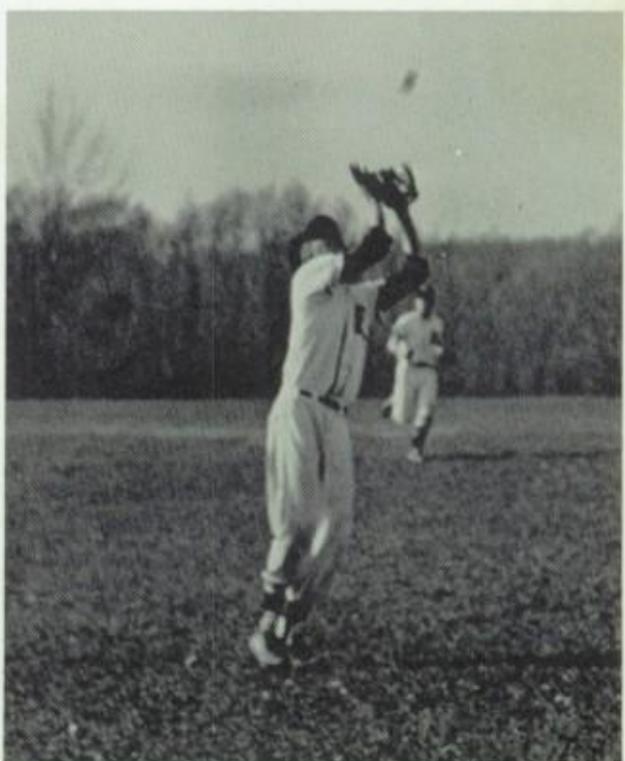

A West Geagua batter tried to beat out a bunt. He did.

Jack Rudnay made it to home in plenty of time as he scored one of Kenston's 12 runs against West. Kenston won, 12-5.

This Burton boy didn't quite make it as Dick Schultz watches Paul Saiter nab the throw from second.

John King was safe as he took second during the West game.

Dave Larsen made the put-out as the centerfielder ran in.

TRACK

Even though the track team didn't win a meet, there were several boys who stood out in their events. Gary Stubbs continued his success in the mile, Brad Roach in the half-mile, and Jerry Taylor in the 440, the 100 yard dashes, and the high jump. All three boys went to the state track meet. Bill Gunnarson, the AFS student earned a track letter because he was to place all the time in the pole vault.

Jerry Taylor won the 100 yard dash in the Aurora track meet.

Jerry Taylor came in first in the county track meet in the 440 yard dash.

Pete Eichstaedt and Clarence Walker ran the low hurdles for Kenston.

Here is a familiar sight - Jerry's winning.

Jerry could jump higher than he was tall.

Bill Gunnarson wins the pole vault at Aurora.

Gary Stubbs took first place in the mile in the G. L. A. C. county track meet.

GOLF

Left to Right: D. Sutliff, J. Seliga, M. Smith, D. Rothstein, B. Tury, B. Bortner, S. Meyer,
Mr. Duitch.

The golf team is usually small, but the boys all like Mr. Duitch and they have a lot of fun knocking the little round ball around.
